

Boxford Community Hub Update 17 May 2020

Boxford – Art Bank

Are you looking for art materials such as paints, pencils, crayons? Whether you are an artist or are looking to provide children with a creative outlet, there may be something for you at the Boxford Art Bank.

Next to “Take What You Need, Leave What You Can” in the North Porch of St Mary’s Church(Boxford), there are donations of art materials for people to use.

A big thank you must go to some of the Community Hub volunteers for the idea and the materials.

Suffolk County Council - Covid 19 Briefing.

We periodically receive briefing notes from Suffolk County Council. These are often extensive and have information that may be of interest to some, but not all. The notes from the 15 May can be accessed on the Community Hub news page. The document is available here:

Facemasks for babies – advice from Suffolk Safeguarding Partnership

Following on from the government’s advice that people should wear face coverings in public, Suffolk Safeguarding partnership are urging parents not to use facemasks on babies under two years old. A baby of this age has a smaller airway and breathing through a mask is harder for them. Using an infant mask can increase their risk of choking or suffocating
