Boxford Community Hub Update 3 May 2020

Update from Boxford Primary School

Sally Connolly, the Chair of Governors for Boxford Primary School, has provided an update on the hard work undertaken by all the staff in meeting the challenges of the current situation. This can be found on the Community Hub news page: <http://boxford.me.uk/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/boxford-school-update-03052020.pdf>

Suffolk County Council - Covid 19 Briefing.

We periodically receive briefing notes from Suffolk County Council. These are often extensive and have information that may be of interest to some, but not all. The notes from the 29 April can be accessed on the Community Hub news page. The document is available here: <http://boxford.me.uk/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/Covid-19-Briefing-29-April-Suffolk-County-Council.pdf>

Suffolk Learning Disability Partnership Response

The Suffolk Learning Disability Partnership have set up a no-reply WhatsApp group to share information during the COVID-19 pandemic. They will be sharing useful information, accessible information and resources and updates that may be useful for people with a learning disability, their families, carers and support. Suffolk Trading Standards – Scams Infographic

Suffolk Trading Standards have produced a useful infographic to help people spot the many scams that are appearing as criminals seek to take advantage of the current situation. <http://boxford.me.uk/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/Covid19-Scam-Infographic.pdf>

Even more information is available on the National Friends Against Scams site. <https://www.friendsagainstscams.org.uk/elearning/suffolk>
